TESSAHOC
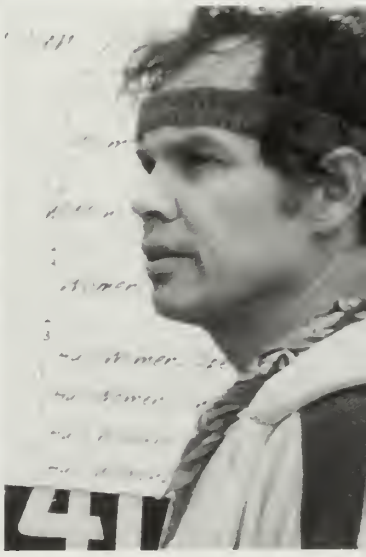
2003
This is the time to remember...
Cohasset High School
143 Pond Street
Cohasset MA
Nell Brewer

It is a rare occasion when a teacher comes along who not only evokes the genuine desire to learn and improve, but who can also succeed in creating true friendships with his students.

MR. Narkiewicz

Paul Narkiewicz has taught at Cohasset High School for more than thirty years, dedicating himself wholly to his students and his love of teaching. Whether he is teaching French or Spanish, acting in the school musical, or directing the National Honor Society, Mr. Nark plays an active role in the entire high school community. His passion and enthusiasm has inspired many to develop not only in foreign language, but also as individuals. His zest for perfection, his ability to relate to his students, and his support of the arts, are greatly appreciated and will never be forgotten. Paul Narkiewicz's spirit will be remembered and missed by students and faculty alike.

Good Luck Mr. Nark, from the Class of 2003!



Seniors,
what is your favorite CHS memory?

Nell Brewer

"When Sarah Hassan repeatedly slammed Murph's head into the cabinet... I couldn't stop laughing."

Deirdre Bigley

"That time when Cristina went into Crazy Willy's "office" and he started screaming at her!"

Evan Pestone

"When Dr. Jones called the class of 2002 the "class of 2001" at graduation last year!"

Matt Davis

"When John Durkin fell in the mud flats during our Marine Bio field trip! I laughed so hard I threw up!"

Costyo Caupi

"Killing Norwell in football this year!"

Katherine Coyne

"Hiking through the mud trying to find Molly's sandal after the Norwell game!"

Julie Shea

"When Evan took somebody's crutches and pretended to get knocked to the ground in the middle of the crowded hallway!"

Rachel Smith

"When Kim and I had to get water for our field hockey game but we had our cleats on, so we had to crawl down the hallway of the new school. Mr. D and Dr. Gill laughed at us when Trainer Jim passed us carrying the water!"

Yasmine Aimee Afshar

"Where was his boyhood now? Where was the soul that hung back from her destiny; to brood alone upon the shame of her wounds and in her house of squalor and subterfuge to queen it in faded cerements and in wreaths that withered at the touch? Or where was he? He was alone. He was unheeded, happy and near to the wild heart of life. He was alone and young and wilful and wildhearted, alone amid a waste of wild air and brackish waters and the seaharvest of shells and figures, of children and girls and voices childish and girlish in the air."-James Joyce "All you touch and all you see, is all your life will ever be."-Pink Floyd

If I wrote what everyone else wrote, chances are that I'd have no rememberance of who the initials stand for. The catch phrases of today will most definitely not be used by the time that we graduate college. We will eventually become outdated and our favorite songs will be found on the most hip oldies station. In 10 years, we'll no longer have our good looks and our clothing styles will be as outdated as our music. Soon, those younger than us will call us old. Many things will change about us and the way we live. If you choose to stay in Cohasset and send your kids to CHS, good luck to you. Just remember the "senior privalages" that we had and how much we all loved it here. For most of you, if I never see you again, I won't be sad. Enjoy your lives.

FACULTY/STAFF

To the Class of 2003:

Michael Jones/ Principal

And now it is time to say farewell, good luck, keep striving, and remember who you are and where you have come from, so that you will always have a compass to guide you through life's decisions. You may never know how much you have cheered me, as I watched you growing, learning, and becoming the young adults that you are. On behalf of the faculty and staff, I want you to know how proud we are of you, how much we cherish you, and how much we want to follow your progress through life. So let this yearbook, in part, symbolize our own affection for you, through the memories it calls forth in all of us. And through it, remember, that at Cohasset High School, you will always have a home.

Jack DeLorenzo
Vice Principal

Jack DeLorenzo Named State's Top Assistant Principal

"On October 28th, 2003, Jack DeLorenzo received notice that he had been picked by the Massachusetts Secondary School Administrators' Association, Inc. as the top assistant principal statewide for 2002."

Social Awareness Organization

"Volunteerism is the voice of the people put into action. These actions shape and mold the present into a future of which we can all be proud."

~Helen Dyer

The Social Awareness Organization believes in volunteer participation i a variety of activities on the local, national and international level. Walks for Breast Cancer and Hunger, canned food and clothing drives, feeding the homeless at Father Bill's and sponsoring a team for the Relay for Life reflect our motto, "to care is to act". We will continue to help those in need as w look at the world with open eyes and open hearts.

family and friends

The pages may crumble,
the pictures may fade
but we'll never forget the friends that we made Love, Alexis
many people will walk
in and out of your life,
but only true friends
will leave footprints
in your heart.

Sarah Sarah Sarah Sarah

She's born a beautiful perfect baby
I watch her learn to walk
And then talk
Now, she's the cutest, smartest toddler
I watch her make friends
And boss me around
Then, she starts Kindergarten Mitchell School
I watch her go on that first day
With tears in my eyes
Shes's the most well-behaved, generous child
I watch her master reading
And sets her own tone
Now, we move and she's brave & trusting I watch her adjust and try to fit in
And she is sad
Then, she makes friends and starts anew
I watch her deal with pre-teen
And she does it with real grace
She grows so fast, and so tall
I watch her go past me
And reach up to comb her hair
Now, I have to let her become herself
I watch in wonder at a beautiful girl
And worry so-o-o-o-o-o-o-o
Then, a storm hits and takes me away
I watch from a distance
As she matures !perfect!

The wind blows as the children grow
The warm sun fills their hearts
The soft sand guides their path

The swaying sea grass mimics their playfulness
The quaint town fills their tummys
The changing seasons engulf their moods
The cozy common reminds them of family
The gorgeous sunsets brightenes their goals
The stormy nights highlights their fears
The icy mornings slow their gallup
The strong ocean currents teach them
the harshness of life
The heavy morning mist shows a fresh new start
The salt of the air will follow them thru time.
The graceful sway of a willow tree waves good-bye to the class of 2003

"Fate smiled and destiny laughed... she'll make her way."

Sarah,
You have always handled your life with grace. What a pleasure it is to share the journey with you as you mature into an even more intelligent, kind, humorous, determined, creative, sweet and beautiful young woman.

With all our love and admiration,
Mom, Liz, and Grandy

Your children are not your children.
They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.
They come through you
but not from you,
And though they are with you,
yet they belong not to you.
You may give them your love
but not your thoughts.
For they have thoughts of their own.

Success

To laugh often and much;
to win the respect of intelligent people
and affection of children;
to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends;
to appreciate beauty,
to find the best in others;
to leave the world a little bit better,
whether by a healthy child,
a garden patch
or a redeemed social condition;
to know even one life has breathed easier
because you have lived.
This is to have succeeded.
